RAJYA SABHA

The following Bill was introduced in the Rajya Sabha on the 20th May, 1970:—

BILL No. XVIII OF 1970

A Bill further to amend the Indian Penal Code, and the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Twenty-first Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. This Act may be called the Criminal Law Amendment Act, 1970. Short title.

45 of 1860. 2. In Chapter XIV of the Indian Penal Code, after section 294A, the following section shall be inserted, namely:— Insertion of new section 294B.

"294B. Whoever sells or distributes or offers or advertises for sale or distribution, or has in his possession for the purpose of sale or distribution, any ticket, coupon or other document for use in a State lottery in any State (not being the State wherein such State lottery has been organised) without the permission of the Government of that State, shall be punished with imprisonment of either description for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine, or with both.". Selling, etc., of tickets of State lottery in any State (not being the State wherein such State lottery has been organised) without the permission of the Government of that State.

Amendment of Schedule II.

3. In Schedule II to the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, under the heading "CHAPTER XIV.—OFFENCES AFFECTING THE PUBLIC HEALTH, SAFETY, CONVENIENCE, DECENCY AND MORALS", after the existing entries in columns 1 to 8 relating to section 294A, the following entries shall be inserted, namely:— 5 of 1898.

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8
"294B	Selling etc., of tickets of State lottery in any State (not being the State wherein such State lottery has been organised) without the permission of the Government of that State.	Ditto	Ditto	Ditto	Ditto	Imprisonment of either description for 6 months, or fine, or both.	Ditto.".

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Consequent on representations from some State Governments that they may be permitted to conduct State lotteries to help them mobilise savings and to find fund for financing their development plans, it has been decided to authorise the State Governments to conduct lotteries, if they consider such action desirable. At the same time, it is considered necessary that suitable action may be taken to safeguard the interests of such State Governments who do not wish to permit the sale within their jurisdiction of tickets of lotteries organised by other States. Accordingly, it is proposed to amend suitably the Indian Penal Code and the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, so that it may be unlawful for any one to sell or distribute in any other State the tickets of such lotteries without the approval of the State Government concerned.

2. The present Bill seeks to achieve this object.
